COVENANT CLASS PARTY.

A large number of the members of the Covenant Bible class of the First Methodist church were entertained Thursday evening by Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Langman of their home 1260 Fourteenth street, the occasion being the monthly social and business session. Considerable business was transacted followed by a time of sociability. An advertising contest Mrs. Langman and Miss Pond had for honesty and Miss Pond won the favor. Much merriment was caused by a mock devotional services, the topic of which was "The Old Order Changeth." Miss Thomas Journey reviewed the mission paper and Mrs. S. J. Woodin was the leader of the study program, the subject of which was "The Redman and His Neighbor," she giving the first paper on the subject "White, the Color of Superiority." Mrs. H. W. Reed read an article on "The Indian Compared With the White Man," and Miss Dorothy Sangren gave a paper on "Varying Views of the Indian." Miss Young told of "Indian Education" and Mrs. Paul Wagner of "Enforced and Initiative Changes." Mrs. R. H. Hoffman continued the story of "Good Bird, the Indian." The quarterly reports of the standing committee were read and the matter of the revision of the constitution was put over to the September meeting. The hostess served refreshments at the close of the program. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. W. J. Kahle, 1010 First avenue. Mrs. Edgar Stapp will be the leader and the topic will be "The Aborigines Who are Not Redmen."

BRIDGE TO HONOR VISITOR.

Miss Delphia Dooley at her home 2407 Seventh avenue, entertained at a small bridge party last evening at a house of her guest Miss Louise Frishof of Sioux City, Iowa. Four tables of the game were surrounded and favors were won by Miss Esther Dunn of Monroe and George Schneider. A light lunch was served at the small tables after the games and the remainder of the evening given over to a very delightful time of sociability.

MARGUERITE BIRTHDAY CLUB.

Miss Margaret Murin at her home 1014 Tenth avenue, acted as the hostess yesterday afternoon to members of the Marguerite Birthday Club. The house was decorated to carry out the St. Patrick's idea and the place cards at the lunch table were suggestive of the day. The ladies spent the time with fancy work and were served with a delightful luncheon. The hostess was left with a nice gift. Mrs. Gaahan will entertain the club at the next meeting April 16.

BROTHERHOOD YEOMEN PARTY.

Fifty couples attended the hard times dancing party at Beseline's hall last evening given by the Brotherhood of American Yeomen. Bleuer's orchestra gave the dance program and prizes for the most comical costumes were given to Mrs. Ford and Mrs. Van Arsdel. The next dancing party of the society will be given April 2 also at Beseline's hall.

STEVENS-TODD.

Miss Okia Todd of Canton, Ill., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Todd, 3306 Fourteenth avenue this city and Roy Stevens of Elwood, Ill., were united in marriage Thursday afternoon at the home of Rev. C. Lee Stauffer, 1218 Thirty-first street, who officiated at the service. The couple was accompanied by a number of relatives to witness the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Stevens left today for Peoria county where they will make their home on the groom's farm.

CLUB OBSERVES 15TH ANNIVERSARY.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Larson at their home, 3906 Eighth avenue, last evening entertained in a pleasant manner the members of the Swedish club in celebration of the 15th anniversary of the organization of the club. Three of the charter members, Dr. and Mrs. E. A. Edlen of Moline and Mrs. Ulla Hessel were present the entire company numbering about 30. Mrs. Edlen spoke of the social activities of the club and Mrs. N. J. Forsberg, the secretary, read portions of the minutes of the first meetings. An octet gave musical numbers. A buffet lunch was served, the serving table having as its centerpiece daffodils and roses and about it was an enormous Swedish coffee cake in the form of a wreath on which was inscribed the name of the club and the date of organization. The time passed very quickly and pleasantly. The next meeting March 26 will be held at the home of Dr. C. E. Lindberg.

ENTRE NOUS CLUB.

Miss Hazel Dodson, 1810½ Third avenue, was hostess Thursday evening to the members of the Entre Nous club. The young ladies spent the evening socially and enjoyed the dainty lunch served by the hostess. The girls will be entertained at the home of Miss Bessie Hamilton, 1411 Twenty-fifth street, March 18.

CIRCLE PLANS CARD PARTY.

At a meeting of the Silver Cross Circle of King's Daughters held yesterday afternoon in the home of Miss Selma Bear, 60½ Eighteenth street, plans were made for a card party to be held April 5 at the home of Mrs. Charles Volk. The circle also decided to make infants' clothes for the use of visiting nurses. During the social hour which was enjoyed refreshments were served.

BROADWAY SOCIETY ANNUAL MEETING.

The annual business session and election of officers of the Ladies' Aid society of Broadway Presbyterian church was held yesterday afternoon, Mrs. Frank Mixer entertaining at her home, 734 Twentieth street. The committee and officers submitted reports for the last year's work and the nominating committee submitted the following list of officers, all of whom were elected:

President—Mrs. Frank Mixer.

First Vice President—Miss Carrie Greig.

Second Vice President—Mrs. E. C. Hart.

Treasurer—Mrs. R. P. Scott.

Secretary—Mrs. F. R. Harrington.

The plan used by the society last year in financing the society was adopted again this year, that of tying comforts, hemming table cloths and napkins, coffees and all-day meetings for work of the various committees.

Members will be asked to pay a monthly fee of 25 cents and visitors will make a free-will offering. The society meets the first Friday of each month, in the homes of the members. The hostess served a very nice lunch to the 27 members who were present, during the social hour after the business session.

CONGREGATION OF SOUTH PARK BANQUETS.

Following the serving of an elaborate and delicious course banquet last evening by the Woman's guild of South Park Presbyterian church to the adult membership, the annual congregational meeting was held. Rev. W. G. Gleve was named moderator and Arthur Colburn was chosen clerk of the meeting. Two elders, Robert L. Baird and Edwin Williams are chosen and will be installed and organized at the hour of morning worship tomorrow. Reports from all the church organizations were read and were most encouraging in spite of the handicaps that the year has brought. Each society reported good progress and work and increase in membership.

The supper was served in the church basement beginning at 5:30 o'clock and 180 people were served.

Musical numbers were given by the church choir and a class of girls from the Sunday school. The members of the Woman's guild were voted the thanks of the congregation for the supper that they had served.

The company sang "Blest Be the Tie That Binds" and were dismissed with prayer by the pastor.

HEART AND HOME PROBLEMS

MRS. ELIZABETH THOMPSON

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am considered very pretty, but I am losing weight now from worrying. A year ago last fall I met a tall, dark fellow that I do not think I can ever forget. He took me to Chicago to wed me, but after a month together he left me alone and forsaken, because my folks disowned me for going away with him. I am a mother now and never can forget him, although I do not know where he is. What would you advise me to do? Do you think I will ever forget him? I have plenty of good chances to marry, but I will not pay attention to anyone. There is just baby and I have plenty of money and I go to big cities and am going to the San Francisco fair alone. Do you think it is safe? What would you advise a nervous wreck to do who cannot even write a letter any more? Do you think that if I went back to the farm my nerves would be better?

F. L. M.

Dear little girl, you will learn to think less and less of the man with whom you have had so tragic an experience. This trouble has not ruined your life by any means, and you must stop worrying about it. Do not think of marrying just now; you will know your mind so much better when you are older and find splendid men who are worthy of you. Ask your parents to let you come home. At first, if you return, you will be troubled by gossip, but you can easily overcome that if you prove yourself to be a good, strong mother. The fair would be a terrible strain for a nervous woman with a baby. Wait and visit California at another less trying time; you will have chances to see other fairs. If I were you I would consult a nerve specialist; he might give you some valuable advice. As long as you are accustomed only to the companionship of baby you could probably be very happy on the farm. Try to make more friends if you go there, a lonely person is usually morbid, and you owe it to baby to be cheerful. I do not understand about the money you have. Never accept it from men.

Do not let him come to see you too often; have other boy friends; and of all things do not be afraid of losing him. Play fearlessly and independently as though he were welcome to forget you any moment he chooses. Find out if there is anything he does particularly well. If there is, compliment him about it. Interest yourself in the subjects in which he is interested and talk about them.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: (1) Is it correct form when meeting a young man on the street to ask him to call on a certain evening if he is not in the habit of calling?

(2) Should a young man lay down his own wraps or should the girl offer to do this, and also offer to help him put them on?

OLD FASHIONED.

(1) No, it is not correct form. If you are talking to him some place beside on the street you might ask him to call, but let him set his own time.

(2) The girl should show the man where to lay his wraps, but let him put them there himself. She should never help him to put them on.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: What colored suit would be best for traveling?

CHUM.

Gray. It will not show dust or soil.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

THREE MAPLE RECIPES.

Maple Cake—One cup sugar, one or two eggs, half cup butter, one cup sour milk, half cup maple syrup, one teaspoon soda, cinnamon and cloves to taste, two cups flour.

Maple Cookies—One cup maple syrup, half cup butter, one egg, two cups flour, half teaspoon soda to water quickly. Bake in quick oven in two layer cake pans. When done, remove from pans and split each layer in two. While cake is baking make the following cream: One pint milk, two tablespoons cornstarch, two eggs (beaten), one-half cup butter, one teaspoon vanilla.

Maple Taffy—One quart maple syrup, piece butter size bicornut; boil until it will harden in water; pour into greased platter and pull when cool.

BREADMAKING HINTS.

After your bread has been stiffened, remove every bit of dry flour; grease pan with lard; bread will not stick to pan; neither will there be any dry flour to stick to leaves.

When baking bread, trim off all burnt edges of stale bread, soak it into your sponge. Proceed in usual way to bake bread. A good way to use all stale bread while flour is so high, you would never know you had rehashed stale bread.

In making light bread, after having first been mixed and kneaded, let it rise twice before molding in loaves to rise and bake. You will have much better luck with the bread.

UP-TO-DATE RECIPES.

Cheese Fritters—To use up old cheese: Half pound cheese grated or cut in small pieces, one pint sour milk, half cup water, half teaspoon salt, one teaspoon vanilla. Mix together quickly. Bake in quick oven in two layer cake pans. When done, remove from pans and split each layer in two. While cake is baking make the following cream: One pint milk, two tablespoons cornstarch, two eggs (beaten), one-half cup butter, one teaspoon vanilla.

Crab Salad—Two cups Japanese crabmeat, two cups celery, one cup salad dressing, salt, pepper and garnish. Pick crabmeat over carefully, removing any particles of bone. Add celery cut into small dice. Season with salt and pepper and mix all together; add salad dressing (either mayonnaise or boiled), garnish with lettuce, peppers, beet root or any preferred garnish, as for instance, hard-boiled eggs or stuffed olives. Pour a little extra dressing over top and serve very cold.

Deviled Lobster—Two tablespoons butter, one tablespoon dry mustard, one-half teaspoon salt, one tablespoon worcestershire or tomato sauce, one teaspoon lemon juice, one can lobster, one-third cup butter. Beat the two tablespoons of butter to a cream, add mustard, salt, sauce and lemon juice. Divide lobster into neat pieces, saute for about six minutes in one-third cup butter and, when nearly done, add creamed mixture. Heat whole thoroughly and serve on toast.

Celeri Shrimps—Two tablespoons butter, one teaspoon onion juice or grated onion, 1 1/2 tablespoons flour, four, half cup butter, half cup milk, one teaspoon cream of tartar and half teaspoon soda. Mix butter and sugar to a cream, add milk, then flour in which soda and cream of tartar have been sifted, then add beaten whites of eggs. Flavor to taste.

Baked Apple Sauce—Peel, core, quarter apples to fill one quart measure. Spread these over bottom of granite dripping pan. Sprinkle liberally with sugar and nutmeg, dot with small pieces butter. Then take one tablespoon cornstarch, dissolve in two tablespoons cold water, pouring over this one pint boiling water, stirring until it looks like a clear starch.

Michigan Ivory Cake—Whites of five eggs, one cup sugar, 2 1/2 cups flour, half cup butter, half cup milk, one teaspoon cream of tartar and half teaspoon soda. Mix butter and sugar to a cream, add milk, then flour in which soda and cream of tartar have been sifted, then add beaten whites of eggs. Flavor to taste.

Officials at Oxford university have ordered additional precautions against a raid by Zeppelins or aeroplanes. No bright lights of any kind are allowed and most of the colleges are absolutely dark after nightfall. The street lights in the "squads" and campuses have all been darkened. In the event of a raid, a siren is to be blown to enable students to seek refuge.

SCRIPTURE

Genesis 2:8-16.

And God spoke unto Noah, and to his sons with him, saying,

And I, behold, I establish my covenant with you, and with your seed after you;

And with every living creature that is with you, of the fowl, of the cattle, and of every beast of the earth, with you, from all that go out of the ark, to every house of the earth,

And I will establish my covenant with you, neither shall all these be cast off any more by the waters of a flood; neither shall there any more be a flood to destroy the earth.

And God said, This is the token of the covenant which I make between me and you and every living creature that is with you, for perpetual generations:

I do set my bow in the clouds, and it shall be for a token of a covenant between me and the earth.

And it shall come to pass, when I bring a cloud over the earth, that the bow shall be seen in the cloud.

And I will remember my covenant, which is
